STRIKERS TIE UP

GEORGIA RAILROAD

Traffic on Georgia Railroad Suspended—Management Awaits Action by State.

Augusta, Ga., May 23.—The Georgia Railroad is completely tied up tonight. The management is not trying to move trains, simply announcing that it has the men, the means and the equipment to proceed and will do so when the State announces readiness to protect its property and employees. The strikers are standing pat. They assert that they have not been and will not participate in any violence. Sympathizers with the strikers, it is set out, have done all the hurt that has been done.

General Manager Thomas K. Scott, at 6 p. m. made the announcement that "on trains are moving."

Governor Smith has wired the sheriff of McDuffie County to co-operate with the municipal authorities and to summon all deputies necessary to protect life and property. It is in this county that Thompson is located where "the crowd" issued an ultimatum last night that no trains should pass carrying either non-union firemen or negro firemen. Governor Smith has also asked the sheriff there to keep him fully advised of the situation. The Governor also wired the sheriffs at Rockdale and DeKalb counties, giving

NEWSPAPER AS EDUCATOR.

Chief Factor in United States, Says Melville E. Stone.

Melville E. Stone of the Associated Press spoke to the Columbia University students in St. Paul's chapel, New York, recently on "The Ethics of Journalism."

"The newspaper is the chief educational factor in the United States," said Mr. Stone. "I don't say that it is the best educational factor, but more people in the United States get their education from the newspapers than from any other source. A free and self-governing people presupposes a free press, and in our country there is a daily newspaper for every three persons over ten years."

"To those entering journalism, I would say that here even more than in other professions, honesty is the best policy."

Mr. Stone laid down three rules of conduct which should be observed in the conduct of the business end of a newspaper. A paper should not print advertising matter as news, he said, and news should be clearly distinguished from advertising matter. As his second principle Mr. Stone said that advertisers should be correctly informed as to the circulation of a newspaper. And finally there should be no discrimination in the matter of advertising rates.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PIONIC

The Foster Street Methodist Sunday School will have their picnic at Panama City June 10th. They will have a special train which will leave here at 5:30 in the morning and will make no stops between here and the Bay except for wood. Methodists don't need as much water as the Baptists do. Some have signified their intention of trying the Baptist plan, however, when the gulf is reached.

hem information that engineers have been rocked at Congress and Lithuania and urging upon them prompt action for the protection of the railroad's employees and property.

From the office of the Georgia Railroad here tonight it is announced that all freight accumulated at Atlanta for Augusta and points beyond will be moved tonight by the Central and the Seaboard. The Georgia Railroad freight station here will be open tomorrow for the delivery of freight to consignees, but shippers are requested to withhold all shipments until after her notice.

After admitting the complete tie-up of the tie-up the management of the road says:

"The Georgia Railroad is carrying nothing that promises of early resumption."

The Georgia Railroad is 173 miles long from Atlanta to Augusta and has branches at Camak to Macon, at Barnett to Washington at Union Point to White Plains and also at Union Point to Athens. It is owned by a stock company and is being operated by the Louisville and Nashville, lessee. The Atlantic Coast Line is joint lessee. It employs 2,400 to 2,500 men, 400 of whom are in the train service. Its last monthly pay roll was $80,000.

It is said by those who have been here, that the surf at Panama City is very rude with the girls.

A. M. PRINCE CUTS HIS WIFE'S THROAT

ATTEMPTS TO KILL WITH RAZOR

Possee Pursues; Was Captured at Ashford Tragedy Occurs at Home of Her Father

This morning about nine thirty o'clock A. M. Prince tried to kill his wife by cutting her throat with a razor. The tragedy occurred at the home of Mr. George Smith father of Mrs. Prince on North Appletree street.

Prince entered Mrs. Prince's room and found the latter sitting on the bed sewing. He asked where her mother was and was told that she had stepped out for a few minutes. He then seized Mrs. Prince forced her back on the bed and drawing a razor struck viciously at her throat. Mrs. Prince raised her hand to stay the blow but too late the sharp blade struck her chin just on the outer edge and continued its way into her neck and throat. Thinking that he had accomplished his purpose Prince fled.

Mrs. Prince's cries brought her mother and others to her side. Physicians were summoned and the authorities notified of the tragedy.

Mrs. Prince's wound is considered very serious but not necessarily fatal. The razor struck her on the chin and raged downward and to the left making a very ugly wound. The wind pipe and the jugular vein were not severed although the latter was plainly exposed to view. The razor striking her chin no doubt saved her life as the force of the blow was broken two gaps in the blade where it came into contact showing with what viciousness it was wielded. If she had received the full force of the blow on her throat death would have been inevitable.

After leaving the house Prince fled up Appletree street towards the Coast Line tracks. He was later seen in the eastern part of town near the Central Road going in an easterly direction. Deputy Sheriff Bruce got the county lorry and accompanied by a posse immediately started in pursuit. Surrounding towns were notified to be on the lookout for Prince and everything done to insure heading him off if he attempted to get away on a train. At 12:20 a telephone message was received from Deputy Bruce's posse.

who were then at Cowarts a station on the Coast Line five miles east of Dothan. The message stated that the chase had been kept up to within a half mile of Cowarts and at that point the dogs were so exhausted that pursuit was abandoned for a while.

At four o'clock this afternoon a message was received here that Prince had been caught at Ashford and that he is being brought back to Dothan.

The dogs took the trail again at Cowarts and followed it until they caught him.

Mrs. Prince has been separated from her husband for some time. Their domestic relations have not been congenial for several years and serious differences have arisen between them on several occasions. Not long ago Prince attacked his wife with a knife while they were living in Montgomery, Mrs. Prince being wounded in the arm before parties could interfere. Mrs. Prince then returned to Dothan to her parents, but Mr. Prince followed her to this place. He has been persistent in his efforts to get her to return to him but Mrs. Prince refused to do so. He spent yesterday, Sunday, at the Smith home, Mrs. Prince permitting him to come to see his children. Late yesterday afternoon he left, saying that he was going away on the midnight Coast Line train. Instead of leaving town he stayed here. This morning about nine thirty he went back to the Smith residence, walked into his wife's room and the tragedy resulted. It is said that in addition to his attempt on Mrs. Prince's life in Montgomery, he has sought one or more opportunities to kill her here in Dothan in the past. He seemed so infatuated with his wife that he could not stand being separated from her.

Prince was employed as night engineer at the Dothan Power Plant some years ago. Leaving there he went with the Central Road but did not stay there long later going to Montgomery. It is said that he was in the employ of the L. and N. at that place.

HERE A MINUTE!

To the Citizens of Dothan

This committee will call on you tomorrow the 25th, for a subscription to meet the expense of entertaining the Alabama Press Association, which meets here June 16.

The occasion is one of the most important in the history of Dothan, and the Committee being many men, desire to put the proposition squarely before you. It is the sense of the committee on entertainment that the association should be liberally entertained, in addition to the trip to Panama City, which the Commercial Club has charge of. This committee is the finance committee and is not the committee which has been appointed to arrange homes for the visitors.

The amounts collected by us tomorrow will determine to a large extent the result of the meeting. Dothan can well afford to invest $1,000 in this affair.

It is proposed that handsome prizes be given for the best written articles on Dothan. This is a good investment.

One more week of May, and then our attention must be paid that crop of June brides. There is nothing like looking after this crop at the right time like the farmer does his May oats. If left till they get over ripe, they don't do so well.

The Georgia freemen of known names went out on a strike because the roads kept employing negro freemen. Now the engineers have crawled down off their engines to help make the strike more effective.

Over at Mountie, not so far from Dothan a man was convicted in the city court for selling whiskey. He was fined $1,000 and turned over to the road working gang. Before he began the sentence, for he was unable to pay the fine, he was taken to a blacksmith shop and shackled.

An old Michigan landmark who had been a landmark for years, committed suicide the other day. He did a very rash act, for one of his experience. He only lacked one year more to make a hundred years he had lived and just why he didn't want to live on to the century mark and bloom, like other century plants was not stated. He had probably reached that stage in his journey when he thought he had been overlooked by the grim reaper and this was the only way he had of calling attention to it.

The Knickerbocker Trust Company moved the other day, and found five million in ready cash on hand and thirty seven in fairly good securities. They only had to move the stuff a hundred feet to the bank's new quarters, but a vulgar crowd gathered to watch the sight and stood around with more concern than if such a thing had been done here in Dothan. The officials of the bank called out a reserve from the police to keep the crowd back till the shift was made.

Sheehan, Glass, Finning and Spangler, of the Advertiser who recently walked from Montgomery to Mobile, are about in good training now to walk from there to Dothan, and on to St. Andrews Bay. They should not give up now while they are getting in walking trim. We would suggest they all come to the meeting of the press association, and that they walk down here. They don't know how to appreciate a ride till they walk from here to the Bay, through some sand that is so deep till the swaying of the pines back and forth by the wind worked them into the ground like a fodder stack pole. Some of those Florida pines have gone so deep in the ground till they have almost smothered to death. In that position the real walking test is made.

LOOK FOR THEM
Within a day or two the people of Dothan will be called upon to make contribution toward the entertainment of the Alabama Press Association which meets here in about three weeks. The committee having the raising of this fund in hand will be doing it for Dothan, and they will not have any more time to devote to it than you, or any other private citizen. They will be doing it for the interest of Dothan and her people. It is something in which you should take an interest. It is something that you should contribute to. It will require money to handle the crowd of editors and it is the proper thing to do to make the editors feel that they have been better taken care of here than at other places where they have met. It will be cheap advertising for the town at almost any figure. All who live here and who have property here should feel enough interest to do something toward this fund. The committee will not have time to call the round time. Make your subscription as liberal as you can and pay it over then or turn it in to the committee as soon after as possible, but don't wait for them to hunt you up again.

UNCLE SAM PRINTER
It is claimed by those pull him who have taken the trouble to look into the matter that the post office department is sending $200,000 every day on printing and distributing stamped envelopes. The head of the postoffice department first gave out that the government was making $60 on the thing, but some one got to him by it and figuring on the cost of printing the envelopes and found that they were actually losing when they were delivered. He then the government hadn't been counting as they have them delivered free. But the railroad party must back upon so many pounds, and of course the freighting of the envelopes through the mails, as to be charged to this account.

The profit on printing a thousand envelopes is so small that the printing offices have never felt much of a protest, but the department has gone out flatfooted to solicit this class of business, and goes right into the towns in direct competition with the printing offices who make their living this way, with the added advantage that they are being printed and stamped at the same time by contract, at a price that the printer who pays taxes, license and has other expenses cannot meet. This will not go on for ever. The department, if it went into the banking business in the whole grocery business, the dry good or the railroad business, with the same arm and protection around it would be such a competitor as would make a row that would stop it. It has the same right to place in Dothan or any other place as it has in other places for printing. It is a hell head and it is a hell head that it has of the one large business that it has developed thousands of who live agents but who do nothing for it themselves but are the postoffice receipt at their respective offices. This addition will not prevail much longer. There is coming a man who is representative for the government will fail to go back and the congressmen stop this man. They haven't thought of it seriously yet, but they will.

DO THAN WINE
A man who attended the Dothan Hotel and Casino play day was told that if he took a look at the pretty wine bottle which he had taken from the factory in the town of Dothan and was drinking in the hotel found it was a fine one. He said that he had taken a look at the bottle and found it was a fine one. He said that he had taken a look at the bottle and found it was a fine one.
